ROCKET FLY RESULTS

It was launching time at the Morgan County Fair on Wednesday for the 4-H members enrolled in model rocketry. Youth flew a rocket they had built during their 4-H model rocketry project.

Unit 1 Junior Rocket Fly Champion went to Cash Gould, and Reserve Champion went to Chase Pollart. Other members competing in the rocket fly in Unit 1 were Bentley Larrick and Jenson Manchester. Saxson Keller was champion in Junior Unit 3 and Karson Koch received Reserve Champion. The Unit 4 Intermediate Champion was Landon Crispin. Rylan Schreiner competed in Unit 6 as an intermediate, and was champion. Members who competed in Rocket Fly also built a second rocket which was presented to the judge during interview judging and will be on display for the remainder of the week at the Morgan County Fair.

Steve Cramer was the judge for the 2021 event. He judged the members on the construction of their rocket and their range safety. Their rocket was judged on its flight stability, parachute deployment, and landing.

Youth winning champion may compete at the Colorado State Fair Rocket Fly Contest on Sunday, August 29 in Pueblo.
