ZOEY SNEED WINS DOG SHOW

Zoey Sneed took the Grand Champion award at the 2021 4-H Dog Show. Youth competed in showmanship, obedience and rally classes. Taking Reserve Grand Champion honors was Nicole Kramer.

The Morgan County Fair 4-H Dog Show began early on Thursday, July 29 in Brush at the Morgan County Fairgrounds.

To qualify for the overall award, youth must compete in four areas including record book, showmanship, obedience and rally. A total of 600 points was possible. Colton Baltazar and Shelly Columbia were the superintendents. Brianna Mackey was the judge for all classes.

In Dog Junior Showmanship, Morgin Koch was champion overall and placed first in her class of Junior Novice Showmanship.

In the Intermediate division of Dog Showmanship, overall champion went to Brylee Whitney and reserve champion was a tie between Elizabeth Whitney and Landon Crispin. Placing in the Novice Intermediate Class was Brylee Whitney, 1st, and Elizabeth Whitney, 2nd. In the Open Intermediate Class, the results were Landon Crispin, 1st, Lorin Koch, 2nd, and Aysli Kembel, 3rd.

In the Senior division of Dog Showmanship, Zoey Sneed was champion and reserve champion went to Nicole Kramer. In the Senior Novice Showmanship Baylei Kembel was first. In the Open Senior Showmanship, Nicole Kramer was first. Zoey Sneed placed first in Senior Advanced Showmanship, and Tiare Channon placed second.

Overall champion in obedience was Zoey Sneed, and reserve champion was Brylee Whitney. The final contest of the day was Rally. The champion in rally was Zoey Sneed, and reserve champion was Brylee Whitney.

A full listing of results from each class is below. Several of the youth will be competing at the Colorado 4-H Dog Show during the Colorado State Fair later this month in Pueblo.
