4-H SHOOTING SPORTS OVERALL CHAMPIONS NAMED

Junior and Senior Grand Champion 4-H Shooter Awards were presented on Tuesday, July 15 at the Morgan County Fairgrounds in Brush.

During the Awards Presentation the grand champion overall marksmen were announced. Saxson Keller and Kaine Eicher were named the Grand Champion Overall Marksmen for senior and junior divisions, respectively. Saxson Keller's senior plaque was sponsored by Engle Construction, Denny and Sandy Engle. Jon and Cheryl Flair, sponsored the junior award that was given to Kaine Eicher. To qualify for awards, youth must shoot in a minimum of three divisions and complete a record book.

Junior Reserve Grand Champion was Wyatt Johnson and Senior Reserve Grand Champion Shooter was Soul Keller.

During the awards presentation, Outstanding Participant awards were awarded to a youth within each of the disciplines. These youth were nominated by their peers for going above and beyond in the respective disciplines, being a leader for others, and showing good sportsmanship. The winners of these awards were .22 Rifle – Layne Steinman; .22 Pistol – Katelynn Johnson; Air Pistol – Piper Neal; Air Rifle – Shylynn Larrick; Archery – Seth Whitney; Muzzleloading – Arisa Eicher; and Shotgun – Odin Nilsen.

Youth are now preparing for the state competition which will be held over two different weekends during the Colorado State Fair.

Champions: Junior and Senior Overall Grand Champions and Reserve Grand Champions from the 2025 Morgan County Fair.
